20 Defendant Eric Jackson, represented by his attorney, Geoffrey Hansen, and the Government,
21 represented by Daniel Pastor, appeared before the Court on November 19, 2019, for a status hearing.
22 The Court set a further status hearing for January 14, 2020, at 2:30 p.m. Discovery has been turned over
23 to the defense, and the defense has been reviewing discovery. The parties have also been engaged in 24 plea negotiations, but need more time to potentially come to a resolution. Accordingly, the parties agree
25 it would be appropriate to continue the status conference for a brief time. The parties anticipate that the 26 next status date would be a change of plea proceeding. The parties also agree that it would be
27 appropriate for time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act between January 10, 2020, and February 4, 28 2020, for effective preparation by counsel and in the interest of justice.

Therefore, the parties agree, and the Court finds and holds, as follows:

1. The hearing set for January 14, 2020, is continued to February 4, 2020, at 2:30 p.m.

2. The time between January 10, 2020, and February 4, 2020 is excluded under the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant the requested continuance would deny defense counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The ends of justice served by granting the requested continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial and in the prompt disposition of criminal cases. See id. § 3161(h)(7)(A).
